

Kleine Zalze mit Dreifach Tirumpf

Die Weine von Kleine Zalze haben soeben einen Dreifach Triumpf erreicht. Der Family Reserve Cabernet Sauvignon wurde zum besten Cabernet am Tri-Nation Challenge in Sidney (Dreiländer Wettkampf: Australien, Neuseeland, Südafrika) gekrönt. Dazu kamen die beiden Erfolge in London beim International Wine Challenge 2009 wo die "International Chenin Blanc Trophy" und die "Stellenbosch White Trophy" an den Kleine Zalze Vineyard Selection Chenin Blanc 2008 ging.

Und in der Schweiz haben der Cellar Selection Pinotage 2008 und der Vineyard Selection Cabernet Sauvignon an der Schweizer Weinprämierung La Sélection 2009 beide eine Silbermedaille gewonnen.

Wen wunder es da, dass die Kleine Zalze Weine bei uns im KapWeine Sortiment zu finden sind?

Triple trophy success for Kleine Zalze

The South African winery Kleine Zalze was awarded the Cabernet Sauvignon Trophy in the Tri-Nations Wine Challenge 2009 in Sydney for its Kleine Zalze Family Reserve Cabernet Sauvignon 2007. The award was accepted on Friday night by owner Kobus Basson who had just arrived from London where he had collected "International Chenin Blanc Trophy" and "Stellenbosch White Trophy" in the International Wine Challenge 2009 the week before for Kleine Zalze Vineyard Selection Chenin Blanc 2008.

www.kapweine.ch

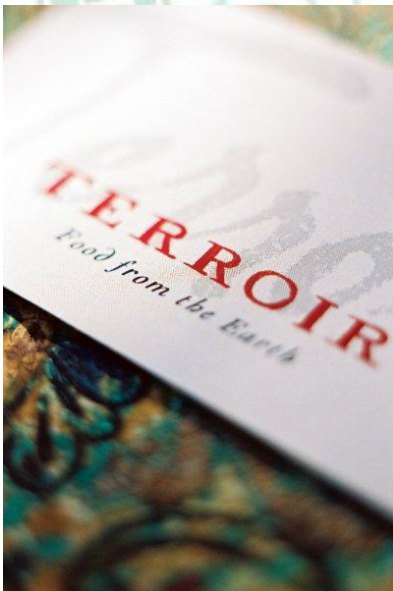

(From left to right): Judith Kennedy the president of the Tri-Nations Competition, Rianie Strydom winemaker for Haskell Vineyards, Kobus Basson Managing Director of Kleine Zalze, and Huon Hooke Judge of the Tri-Nations Competition.

This triple trophy success on both sides of the world is the latest achievement for the family-owned estate based just outside Stellenbosch which, in July this year, was named the number one South African wine in the UK *on-trade, a sector in which Kleine Zalze has built its name and an undisputed reputation for premium quality food-orientated wines.

"We are absolutely delighted to have won these latest prestigious awards. My thanks goes out to our winemaking team who, through extremely hard work in the pursuit of unquestionable quality, has proved once again that Kleine Zalze produces world-class wines. The Chenin Blanc Trophies are immensely important to us as this is a varietal we believe will become more and more prominent for South Africa. However, in many ways the Cabernet Sauvignon Trophy is even more significant as it demonstrates that, even against the toughest southern hemisphere competition, South Africa can and does produce winning premium red wine of a style which can be internationally applauded," Kobus Basson, owner of Kleine Zalze had to say.

Terroir Restaurant

Kleine Zalze Golf Lodge

