

Resultate der Veritas Awards 2010

An den diesjährigen Veritas Awards wurden insgesamt 1733 Weine und Brandies eingereicht. Wie immer wurden die DoppelGold- und die Gold-Medaillen nur spärlich verteilt. Nur gerade 40 Weine und 24 Port-Süss- und Schaumweine und Brandies wurden mit Total 64 Doppel-Gold Medaillen ausgezeichnet.

Desweiteren gab es 130 Goldmedaillen (davon 104 für Weine). Dann noch eine für mich „störende“ Vielzahl von Silbermedaillen (Total 509) und Bronzemedailles (Total 673), welche aber den Gewinn einer Doppel-Gold oder Goldmedaille nicht zu schmälern wissen.

Bei den 40 eingereichten Brandies schwang Van Ryn's mit zwei Doppel-Gold und zwei Goldmedaillen oben auf. Sogar unser Klipdrift Export Brandy wurde mit einer Goldmedaille ausgezeichnet!

Ganz vorne mit dabei sind einige unsere Weingüter wie Spier, Cederberg, Kleine Zalze. Dazu kommen der Newcomers De Grendel und viele andere renommierte Weingüter. Wobei man bedenken muss, dass etliche Weingüter Ihre Weine bei den Veritas Awards gar nicht erste einreichen.

Der Englische Original Text und alle Resultate sind weiter unten angehängt.

Spier Wines excelled at the 20th Veritas Awards for the second consecutive year with five double gold and two gold medals. Out of 1 733 entries only 64 supreme wines and brandies can now wear the coveted double gold symbol of top quality. The awards were announced last night (Friday 8 October) during a gala evening, sponsored by Agri-Expo, at the Cape Town International Convention Centre (CTICC).

Other double gold and gold top achievers are Nederburg (3 double gold, 4 gold), Simonsig (3 double gold, 2 gold), Anura (3 double gold, 1 gold) and Kleine Zalze (3 double gold, 1 gold). Badsberg, Boplaas, De Grendel, De Krans, Fleur du Cap, Lomond and Saronsberg also shone with two double gold medals each.

For the first time since Veritas's inception twenty years ago, brandy now forms part of this proud tradition of wine judging. Van Ryn, creator of excellent brandies since 1845, collected 2 double gold and 2 gold medals from amongst the total of 40 brandy entries.

The medal distribution is as follows: 64 (3.7%) double gold, 130 (7.5%) gold, 509 (29.4%) silver and 673 (38.8%) bronze.

THE WINNING WINES AND BRANDIES

The wine makers of Spier, outside Stellenbosch, proved once again that they have mastered the art of creating a variety of quality wines by clinching double gold medals for the 2008 Spier Creative Block 3, 2007 Spier Creative Block 5, 2007 Spier Private Collection Cabernet Sauvignon, 2008 Spier Private Collection Chardonnay and the 2009 Spier Private Collection Sauvignon Blanc. Their 2010 Spier Creative Block 2 and the 2008 Spier Private Collection Shiraz acquired gold status.

Nederburg stole the limelight with their wines and brandies. They earned double gold for the 1977 Nederburg Edelkeur, 2003 Nederburg Private Bin D266 Sémillon and 2008 Nederburg Private Bin Eminence. Gold was awarded to the 2010 Nederburg Private Bin D234 Sauvignon Blanc, 2009 Nederburg Private Bin D252 Sauvignon Blanc/Sémillon, 2009 Nederburg Private Bin Eminence as well as their Nederburg Solera Brandy.

Simonsig put in a sterling performance with three double gold awards for the 2005 Simonsig Cuvée Royale Blanc de Blancs MCC, 2006 Simonsig Kaapse Vonkel MCC and 2008 Simonsig The SMV Shiraz/Mourvedre/Viognier. Gold Veritas symbols will grace the 2010 Simonsig Chenin Blanc and 2008 Simonsig Pinotage Redhill.

Anura impressed the judges with their 2006 Anura Merlot Reserve, 2008 Anura Pinotage Reserve and 2010 Anura Sauvignon Blanc Reserve Unfiltered and were honoured with a trio of double gold medals. The 2007 Anura Petit Verdot Limited Release won a gold medal.

Kleine Zalze boasts double gold for their exceptional 2009 Kleine Zalze Family Reserve Sauvignon Blanc Sur Lie, 2008 Kleine Zalze Vineyard Selection Shiraz and 2009 Kleine Zalze Vineyard Selection Shiraz/Mourvedre/Viognier. Their 2005 Kleine Zalze Family Reserve Sauvignon Blanc Sur Lie was crowned with a gold medal.

This year's top brandy achiever is Van Ryn with two double gold medals for their potstill brandy, namely the 12 Year Old Distillers Reserve and 20 Year Old Collectors Reserve. They also scooped two gold awards for the Van Ryn's 10 Year Old Vintage and the 15 Year Old Fine Cask Reserve.

MEDAL REVIEW

Sauvignon Blanc and Red blends took the lead in this year's race for double gold medals with nine awards each, followed by Pinotage (5), Shiraz (5), Chardonnay (4), Merlot (4), Port (4), Noble Late Harvest (3), Chenin Blanc (2), Natural Sweet (2), Méthode Cap Classique (2), Cabernet Sauvignon (2), Muscadel (2) and White blends (1). The Museum class won five double gold medals with Noble Late Harvest (2), White wine (1), Dessert wine (1) and Port (1). Potstill brandy earned five double gold awards in the new brandy class.

Sauvignon Blanc is also at the top of the gold medal ladder with 17 awards, followed by Red blends (15), Merlot (12), Shiraz (12), Chardonnay (8), Cabernet Sauvignon (8), Pinotage (8), Chenin Blanc (7), Muscadel (6), White blends (3), Méthode Cap Classique (3), Noble Late Harvest (2), Natural Sweet (2), Other cultivars (2), Sherry (2), Colombar (1), Viognier (1), Noble Late Harvest (1), Dessert wine (1) and

WORLD WINE MASTER JUDGES AT VERITAS

One of the world’s most respected wine fundis and the first South African to be chairperson of the international Institute of Masters of Wine, Lynne Sheriff, again shared her remarkable knowledge and 30 year long wine experience with Veritas. Sheriff is a South African wine consultant that resides in Britain. The local judging panels, consisting of seven judges, were augmented with the expertise and experience of an additional four international wine professionals. The rest of the international delegation consisted of Thomas Lüber of Germany, the lead buyer of South African wines for WIV Wein International AG; and Australian born wine maker Richard Rowe with his extensive exposure to the wine industry in Australia, Germany and France. The brandy entries had to impress the palettes of the French brandy expert from Cognac, Denis Lahouratate and Dave Hughes, a local veteran and international judge.

Shiraz, with no less than 206 entries ran slightly ahead of Sauvignon Blanc with its 196 entries. Other red cultivars such as Cabernet Sauvignon (149) and Pinotage (126) followed closely.

In this third question-and-answer interview, SA National Wine Show Association (SANWSA) chairman, Duimpie Bayly, explains the facts behind the figures.

1 Is there any correlation between entries and medals awarded?

“Veritas is a consumer-orientated competition and medals are meant as a guide to quality. There is no relationship between the number of entries and number of medals awarded. Each wine gets judged purely on merit.”

2 What percentage double gold and gold medals were awarded over the past five years?

	2009	2008	2007	2006	2005
Double Gold	40 / 2%	36 / 2%	44 / 2%	36 / 2.15%	43 / 2.47%
Gold	109 / 6%	98 / 6%	101 / 5%	94 / 5.62%	105 / 6.04%

3 Are Veritas double gold and gold medal wines on a par with international competitors?

“I think so yes, but wines are judged at different times and in different places by different judges. There is always a chance that results may differ. It’s also evident that a wine tasted in September in South Africa and in December in England will be different – even if only bottle-maturation plays a part.”

4 How does a wine benefit from a Veritas medal?

“A Veritas medal lends prestige to a wine, the cellar and the wine-making team. Even more important is the press coverage and sales boost.”

5 How does Veritas management sustain the prestige of this competition?

“Apart from the factors above, we are always on the look-out for opportunities to enhance the image of Veritas. We constantly compare ourselves to similar international competitions, incorporate comments from our international judges and take heed of constructive criticism.

6 What elements of surprise or expectation does this competition hold?

“The fact that the results are only announced at the gala dinner and not published beforehand without doubt enhances the feeling of expectation. Winemakers are also keen to excel at this competition. The build-up to the judging and the publicity surrounding it generates a feeling of anticipation.”

7 What does Veritas do in terms of marketing to get as many entries as possible from as many cellars as possible?

“Veritas takes place under the auspices of the South African National Wine Show Association (SANWSA). The structure of this association is unique because it represents the whole of the wine industry. This plays a major part in encouraging cellars to enter.”
